

WHO'S GOT GAME?

What kinds of games do you play?

What is it about each of those games that you love?

How do each of these games make you feel?

Who are the people you like to play games with?

When do you typically play games?

What games do you really not like playing?

What is it about those games that you don't like?

What games do you wish you knew more about?

What would you like to know that games could teach you? Why?

If you could bring any game into class to play for a day, what would it be, how would you share it, and what would you hope your classmates would see about that game?
